

Therefore the petitioner does move the Hon Ct to reopen pleadings as they were closed as the result of grievous clerical error, when someone did NOT mail me the order of Feb 15, 2005.

Motion For Leave of Court to File

Further Pleadings In Forma Pauperis

Petitioner Harry J Bierley is imprisoned for an alleged parole violation and, he has zero dollars + social security has stopped. Bierley has a home worth approx $25,000 in severely delapidated condition and a $1,000 CD and a $5,000 CD that he cannot use, because they are being held as additional collateral for the line of credit loan of $300. The house is not considered sufficient. He also owes Soc Sec $800 and $700 in credit card debts. He avers these facts to be true under penalties of perjury. Therefore Bierley does move the Hon Mag J Baxter to grant him F.F.P. status to proceed hereto. It Is So Prayed

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Clerk, U.S.D.C.

Please forgive me for the two sided and crowded pleading, and for writing this letter on back of a pleading. I am out of paper unless I use paper towels or T.P.

① Please make sure my address is changed to E.C.P. I will pay you for those docketets at $0.4 a page after I finally get out of prison.

Thank you in advance for any kind and prompt attention you might extend to me.

Cordially,

Harry J. Beerley 14814
